Asynchronous with http.get I'm trying to make an API request to retrieve some data from the web, but the Promise in the http.get is not resolving. This is my component: export class HomeComponent implements OnInit { user: User; constructor(private userService: UserService) { } ngOnInit() { this.userService.getUser().subscribe(response => { this.user = response.json(); console.log("user: " + this.user); }); } } I receive the data when I do a console.log in the subscription but when I try to display it in my HTML I get:

EXCEPTION: Uncaught (in promise): Error: No provider for User! Which is normal since I haven't resolved the Promise of the http.get yet. I tried this but it gives me
